

NEED HELP READING OUR PLANT TAGS?

Common Name → Butterfly Weed

Latin Name → Asclepias tuberosa

Light Requirements → Full Sun

Mature Height X Width → 2' x 2'

Description → This is a must have plant for the butterfly garden! The eye-catching bright orange flowers attract multitudes of adult Monarch butterflies while the foliage supplies a generous amount of food for their caterpillars. Fluff from the seed pods are a favorite for nesting birds. This is a tough, drought tolerant native plant that will bring joy year after year to the New England garden. Hardy to zone 3.

Native= Grows naturally in our area → Connecticut's Harvest

Various Plant Characteristics → i.e. Deer Resistant, Evergreen, Hardiness... (Tolerates Dry, Attracts Butterflies, Hardy to -40°)

Pot Size → Size # 1

If you see this on the tag, it's grown locally at our farm! → Burnett's Grown

Pricing & SKU → $14.99
SKU ASCLTUB1

Barcode: 1 07900 10587 0